

My family and I love Air 1, it is actually the only music station we listen to. It plays wonderful music and I never need to worry about the content, something as a parent concerns me. If Air 1 is taken away, we would probably not listen to the radio for music any longer.